To You:

It is with utmost humility and pride that we are able to include this autographed picture of Our President, Harry S. Truman, in our annual.

Regardless of one's political affiliations, we are sure you feel as we do—that the President of our country is symbolic of our dear United States and we shall be eternally grateful for the honor he has bestowed upon us by allowing us to present this page to you, our readers.

Gratefully,

Eads Seniors of '52
It is with a sense of pride and gratitude, that we, the Senior Class of '52, wish to thank the community of Eads for having been your guests for the past twelve years, and for having enjoyed the privilege of free education in your public school. We especially want to thank our parents and our teachers. Our plan of repayment for this endowment is our promise to become useful citizens.

It is with sincere appreciation that We dedicate this book to all of you.
OUR SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I wish to commend you on remaining in school to complete your high school course. Too many people, I fear, think a high school education is not important. However, in my opinion, those who do not finish will soon regret it.

To you the class of 1952, who have continued, even though the going was hard, I congratulate you for your faithfulness.

CLASS HISTORY

The first day of school twenty little demons, feeling very important, stomped into the classroom and began their twelve years of trying to learn. They were: Raymond Barrows, Duane Borneman, Alfred Greever, Vernon Hollandsworth, Gerald Smith, Sharyn Abrams, Esther Amyx, Joan Burger, Wanda Dunlap, Barbara Huddleston, Carolyn Jackson, Verta Koch, Tressie Lane, Ila Belle Mills, Geneva Hainer, Betty Patton, Wilma Mapson, Elizabeth Rose, and Jeanie Latham.

The second year we lost Alfred Greever, Vernon Hollandsworth, Sharyn Abrams, Joan Burger, Barbara Huddleston, Wilma Mapson, Elizabeth Rose, and Jeannie Latham, but we gained Lealon Brumley, Junior Criswell, Dick Crow, Jack Hines, Gordon Mast, Richard Darrell, Geneva Hainer, Joyce Hutt, May Morton, and Norma Jean Broof, making the total one more than that of the preceding year.

We gained Gus Anderson, Henry Baxter, Sharyn Abrams, and Rosemary Schmitt during the third year. We lost Duane Borneman, Jack Hines, Gerald Smith, Richard Darrell, Geneva Hainer, and Norma Jean Broof. At the end of the second semester, we lost Carolyn Jackson and gained Mildred Hieronymus.

The fourth year Carolyn came back to help us annoy teachers, but we lost Rosemary Schmitt.

The fifth year we gained Cloyce Conner, Delano O'Dell, Thomas Bordell, Judith Hastings, and lost Gus Anderson, Sharyn Abrams, and May Morton.

In the sixth grade we were honored with the addition of six boys and six girls. They were: Donald Haynes, Clyde Jones, Leo Mays, Tommie Zordel, Joseph Hooker, Bobby Vandergriff, Geneva Hainer, Rosie Mays, Ruth Sturgeon, Mamie Zordel, Billie May and Daisy Diemart. We lost Dick Crow, Delano O'Dell, Thomas Bordell, and Judith Hastings.

The seventh year Theresa Rutledge and Sharyn Abrams joined our little mob.

We lost Raymond Barrows and Donald Haynes in the eighth grade, and gained Maynard Amerine, Mildred Hibler, Fritzi Hogge, Dorothy Wimp, and Betty Brookfield.

In the ninth grade we lost Henry Baxter, Leo Mays, Bobby Vandergriff, and gained L. D. Nelson, Don Williams, Earl Mitchell Albert Ady, Dorothy Carthel, Clara Bell Hill, Joyce Nelson, Florence Weiser, and Carma Lorenz.

In the tenth grade, we gained Don Carlson, Robert Wimp, Arthur Hollingsworth, Darlene Bickel, Marilou Tappana, and Lois Henney. We lost Cloyce Conner, Don Williams, Earl Mitchell, Albert Ady, Sharyn Abrams, and Mildred Hibler.
Cupid took its toll during the junior year. They were: Betty Brookfield, Darlene Bickle, Rosie Mays, and Florence Weiser. In addition, we lost Terry Clinesmith, Clifford Kennedy, Bob Wimp, Jean Chronister, Mildred Hieronymus, Fritzi Hogge, Carma Lorenz, Maynard Amerine, Don Carlson, L. D. Nelson, Arthur Hollingsworth, and Marilou Tappana.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty two, of Eads High School, city of Eads, county of Kiowa, state of Colorado, being of sound body and unsound mind do herewith justly make and publish our last will and testament, in order to distribute as fairly as possible our interests in Eads High among the people herewith stated.

JOYCE NELSON wills her lovely voice to Byron Lynn, in hopes that he will use it as she has.
ROSEMARY SCHMITT wills her ability to get A’s to John Holter.
WANDA DUNLAP wills her sweet disposition to Junior Kelley
LOIS HOLTER wills to Marvin Richardson her ability to be a good driver.
GORDON MAST leaves his ability to build muscles to Joyce Woodcock.
ESTHER AMYX wills to Bob Greenwell her ability to act as a tomboy.
JUNIOR CRISWELL wills his ability to tell time to Richard Baxter.
BETTY PATTON wills to Joyce Aldrich her luck in becoming a cheerleader every year. Good luck, Joyce, keep it in use.
ESTHER AMYX Wills to Tommie Stoker her natural curls. Goodby, Toni.
VIVIAN DEINLEIN wills to Henry Baxter her springing walk. (hint)
BETTY PATTON wills to Bruce Fischer her cute laugh.
ILA BELLE MILLS wills her ability to steal cakes to Dorothy Kaza.
DOROTHY WIMP wills her loud voice to Betty Kelley
LOIS HOLTER wills her promptness to Larry Brandlinger.
WANDA DUNLAP wills her ability to get in at nights to Francis.
JOYCE NELSON wills her long legs to Sharyn Abrams.
MAYNARD AMERINE wills love for athletics to Bill Mast.
THERESA RUTLEDGE wills her excess weight to Pattie Dunlap.
MAYNARD AMERINE wills to Charles Crow his ability to charm the girls.
CAROLYN JACKSON wills her ability to make wisecracks to May Morton.
DOROTHY CARTHEL wills her Texas drawl to Wanda Laird.
VIVIAN DEINLEIN wills her rosy cheeks to Verta Koch.

CLASS PROPHECY

It was the year 1962 in the town of Eads, Colorado. The Legion Hall was crowded as we made our way to our seats. We were attending a banquet in honor of the seniors of '52. As Wanda Dunlap, Theresa Rutledge, and I walked across the dining room, we saw many of our old classmates.

As we approached our seats, we saw three charming ladies, standing next to us and chatting gaily. We looked the second time to make sure, and we saw that it was Dorothy Carthel, Betty Patton, and Dorothy Wimp. After much hand shaking and laughing we were told that they were all three nurses, employed at the St. Mary's Hospital in Pueblo.

As we took our seats, we noticed two very handsome service men sitting next to us. The black, curly-haired sailor was Maynard Amerine, our favorite football player. We weren't too sure about the other boy, but Gordon Mast informed us that his uniform was of the Merchant Marine. Maynard told us about his encounter with Joyce Nelson, who was now a famous opera singer. She was unable to attend because of a previous engagement with the Metropolitan.

As we were eating our salad, we noticed two distinguished looking women sitting across the table. We immediately recognized the lady with the rosy cheeks and lovely complexion. It was Vivian Deinlein, who was a first grade teacher in Denver. With her was our old friend and buddy, Rosemary Schmitt, who was a commercial teacher also employed in Denver schools. They had come together in Miss Deinlein's new Cadillac. Miss Schmitt was wearing a lovely creation, which we learned was designed by another of our old classmates, Carolyn Jackson. She is the fashion designer for VOGUE. Vivian told us of the new home she was building. Her interior decorator was Esther Amyx, whom we had also gone to school with. She owned her own business, and was doing quite well.

As the evening was drawing to a close, we met Junior Criswell and Ila Belle Mills. We learned they were employed with a lumber firm in Oregon. Junior was a lumberjack, and Ila Belle was the private secretary.

After bidding them goodbye, we hurried to our waiting families. Our husbands were baby sitting.
