

THE EAGLE

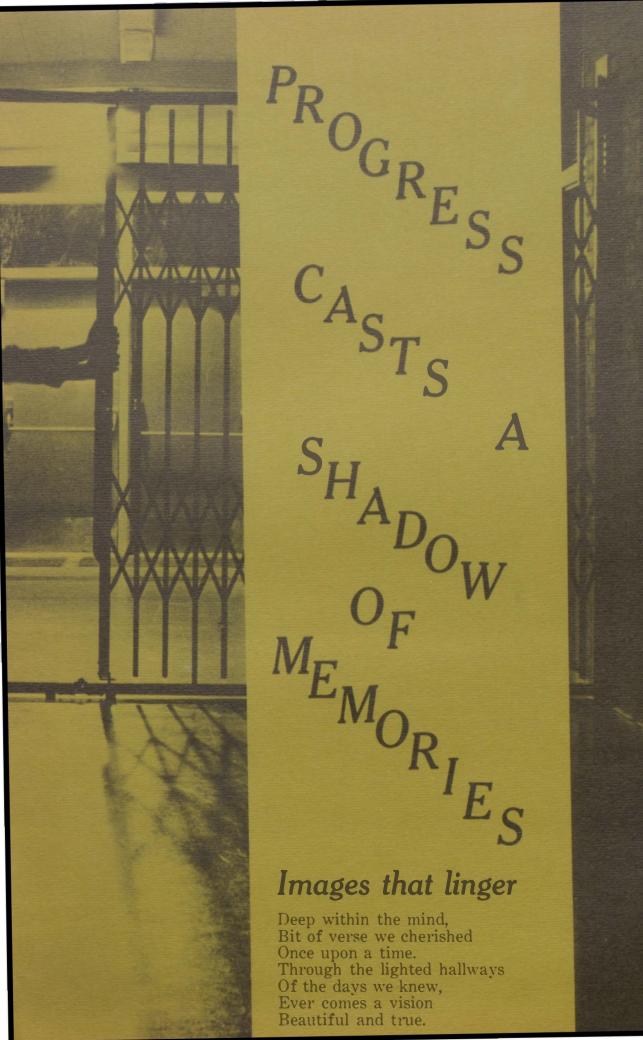

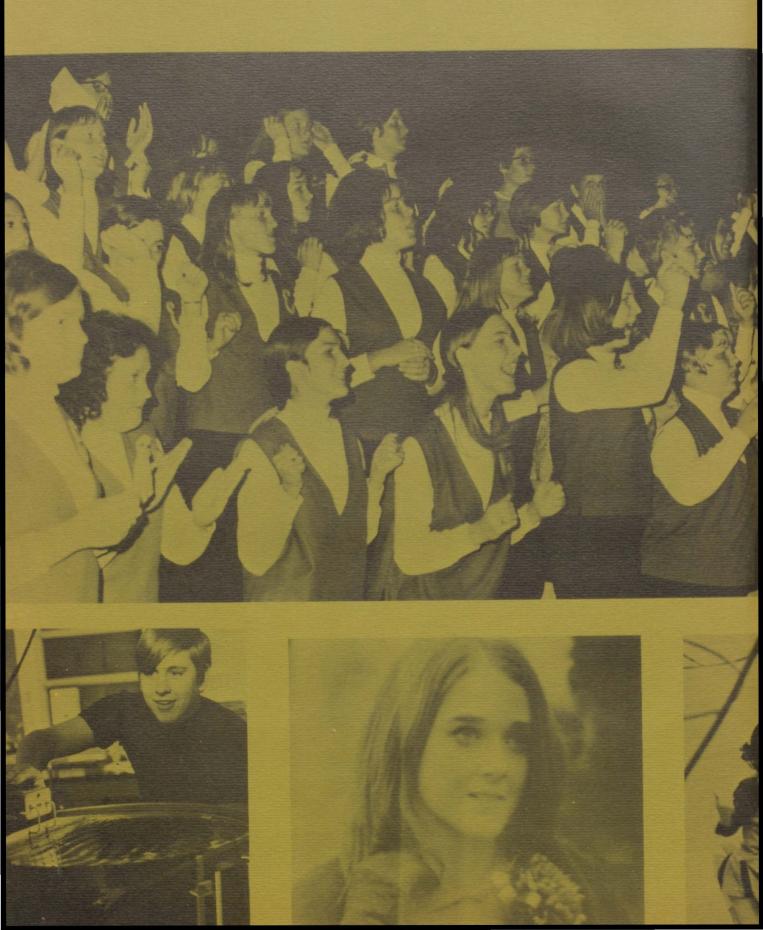

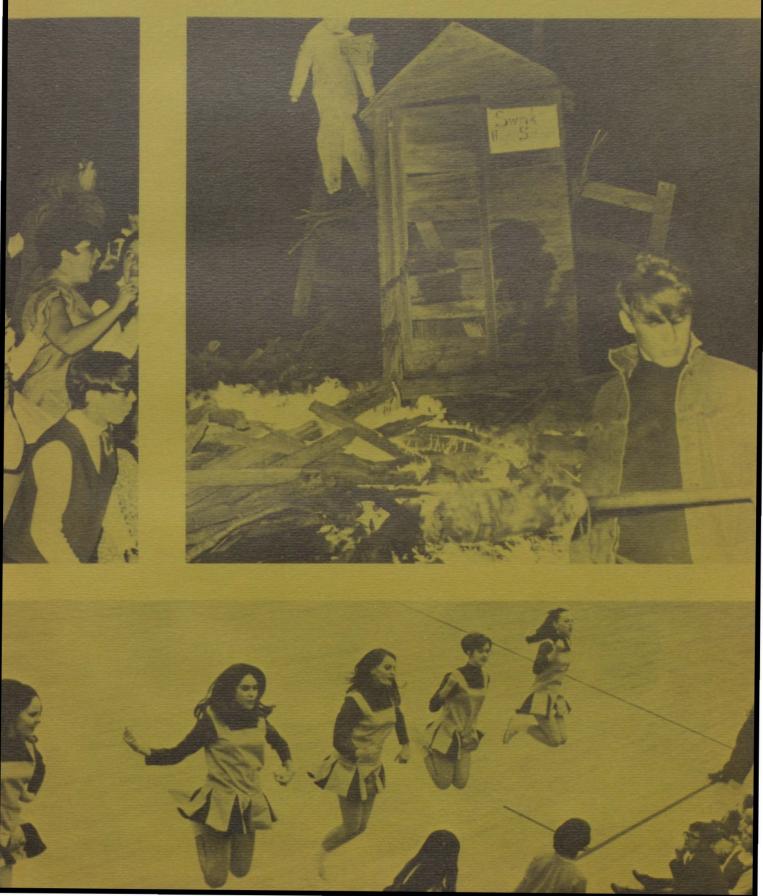

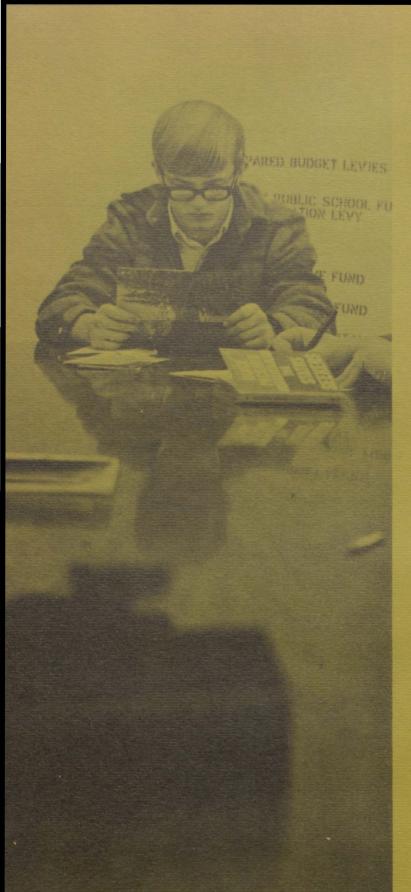

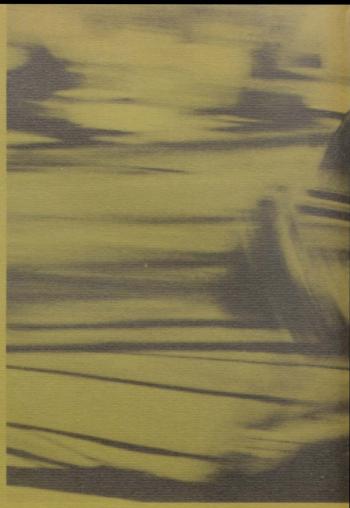

Memories are shadows

Reflections of a moment past Entering our hearts with a smile
for the moment remembered
Then leaving with a tear
for the moment gone forever.

Memories

are heartbeats

Sounding through the years Echoes never fading, Of our smiles and tears. Moments that are captured, Sometimes unaware, Pictured in an album, Or a lock of hair.

Unaware of Elvira's. the Blithe Spirit, (Cathy Larrew) presence, Ruth (Rhonda Batterton) questions her husband's strange behavior.

Senior Play

The Seniors presented Noel Coward's comedy about a spirit's return from the dead in March under the direction of Mrs. Haas and Miss Jarrett.

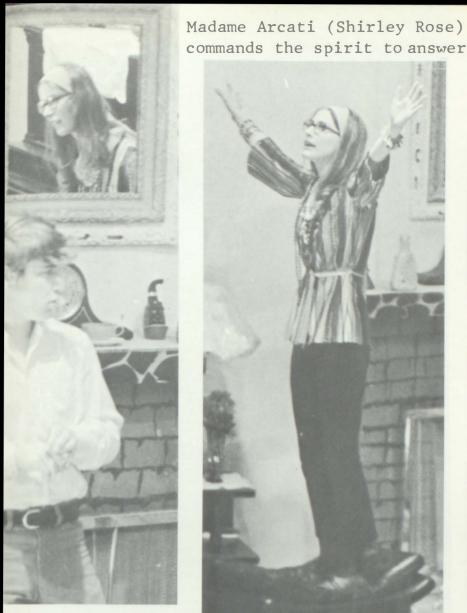

The "Blithe Spirit" was an improbable farce about what happens when author Charles Condomine invites medium Madame Arcati to his home to hold a seance. and succeeds in bringing his first wife back from the dead. After a series of misfortunes intended to harm Charles, the play becomes involved when Ruth, Charles' second wife, is killed instead. Ruth returns to antagonize Elvira but a relieved Charles and Madame Arcati finally succeed in sending them back to the spirit world.

The Bradmans and Condomines, listen while Madame Arcati relates some of her psychic experiences.

Edith, (Trudy Bendorf) the maid, sets the table, innocent of the upheaval which has taken place.

Charles (Dan Myers) assures Madame Arcati

he did not call his first wife back from the dead.
