I don't ask for complications but they come to me in spite.
I never look for ghosts yet they haunt me in the night.
I've never told the sun to stop or told the rain to come.
I either cling to more or less but never just to some.
I think I wish I didn't care if laughter came at all.
I only wish that tears would leave and problems would be small.
I marvel at some miracles and remember them as good.
I stand and watch catastrophes and wish I understood.
I try to do what's good and right and turn my head at bad.
I hate it when my plans don't work and I start to feel so mad.
Mixed emotions I've learned to face and make it through the day.
I know I'm only growing up and everything's okay.
The freshmen swept the halls and gathered wood for Homecoming.

We or They

We are like them
But we are not as old.
We are like them
But we are not as wise.
We are like them
But we are not as mature.
We are like them
But we are not them.
We are small, still in school.
They are grown, gone from school.
They have jobs.
So do we but not like theirs.
They have advantages.
We always wish we were "They."
I wonder what will happen
When We become They?
Thoughts
Shadows of yesterday
and the promises of tomorrow
keep my mind at peace
and I am concerned with nothing but the reality of today.

Sophomores pick out rings.
Juniors win first at Annual Workshop.

Never to Return
never again to experience
what they have
for many years
our seniors leave.

Never to Return
just a couple more years
and we, too,
will join
those ranks
and greet our new world

Never to Return
all our good times-- hopscotch
A's victories
all our sad times
skinned knees
arguments losses.
all these,
we took in stride
together,
Never to Return.
It is now Autumn.
The leaves are turning
And falling off the trees.
It's kind of cold outside.
This will be the last Autumn to May
I will share with
All my school friends
At good ole' PHS.
I love to see Autumn come,
Because it's always pretty outside.
And I look forward to seeing
All my fellow classmates
and friends.
As the season of Autumn to May goes on,
I keep wondering what the 1977 season of Autumn
to May will be like.
Will I be seeing my fellow classmates and friends?
I am going to enjoy
This Autumn to May
Like I never have before.
For all I know,
It may be my last.
