HAWKS

The publication class of "HAWKS 1988" would like to dedicate this year's annual to Mrs. Judy Tuttle. Mrs. Tuttle has put in many long hours of work to make this year's annual a big success. Without her knowledge and dedication, the annual would not be the quality one that it is. Thanks Mrs. Tuttle for all you've done!!!

Juniors

The juniors had quite a busy year. The class proved to be quite the salesmen. They broke the PHS magazine sales record. Later in the year, the juniors sold cheese and summer sausage. They kept busy all year with concession stand, having no real catastrophes. The juniors, with the help of some other people, did the play, "Look Who's Laughing." To cap off the year they decorated for the junior/senior prom. The prom theme was "I Never Thought I Could Love" by Dan Hill. The juniors had "The Heat," a live band, play at the prom. The evening was enjoyed by all.

This year the sophomores were busy keeping the candy machine filled every other day. The class served the Scholastic Bowl luncheon. They also had a trash haul. In literature the sophomores read Hamlet. To celebrate on prom night the class went out to dinner in Lamar. There they saw their name in lights at the Cow Palace. The sophomores then returned to the prom in a white limousine.

Building Teamwork

The Lady Hawks had a tough season in '87. Having only two seniors, one junior, three sophomores, and four freshmen, the team was rather young. The girls were short on height and had trouble attacking the net. The two seniors on the team, JoDell Wilson and Barb Beaman, were the leaders of the team and performed well for the Hawks all year. Junior, Michele Hopkins, added valuable experience to the young team. Sophomores, Dawn Reazin, Sherry Teeter and Angela Fuqua, played well and gained good experience for next year. The four freshmen, Trina Barnes, Jenny Rorex, Julie Earl and Heather Kelley, saw a good deal of varsity playing time.

Passing was also a strong point for the Hawks. Five of the six starters for the Hawks threw touchdown passes. Patrick Kelley and Mike Lening threw for over 950 yards and 18 touchdowns. Every one of the Hawk starters-Patrick Kelley, Mike Lening, Cliff Swisher, David Walker, and Paul Splitter-received All-Division honors. The 1987 Plainview Homecoming week was full of interesting activities. The sophomores were the wall winners in the high school division. At the beginning of the week there was the powder puff volleyball game. The blue team-the seniors-took on the white team-the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. It was a good game, but the white team came out on top. Following the volleyball game was the powder puff football game. The sophomores and seniors played the freshmen and juniors. The freshmen and juniors dominated by a score of 27-0. On Thursday there was a bonfire. The juniors had the best skit. The following night the Hawks hosted the Idalia Wolves. After a win for the volleyball team the football team topped off the evening with an 82-54 win. The highlight of the evening came when Mike Lening and Gwyn Woelk were crowned Homecoming Royalty.

This year there were three cheerleaders, Dawn Reazin, Sherry Teeter, and Heather Kelley. In football there were seven pep club members, club members, Jenny and Trina. The cheerleaders went to a cheerleading camp in Pueblo. The pep club had cake raffles to raise money.

JoDell Wilson, Synda Rorex, Barb Beaman, Michele Hopkins, Jenny Rorex, Trina Barnes, and Julie Earl. In basketball there were two pep

Sixteen young men and women represented Plainview High School this year in track. Both the boys and girls team were very competitive throughout the season. The teams had some very tough competition as they had to compete against several class 2-A schools. The boys placed second at the Tribune Invitational and at League. Tom Scott qualified for the state meet in Denver in the 100 and 200 meter dashes. Tom missed the finals of the 200 at state by three hundredths of a second. This year's team was very young as there were eight freshmen. This will make for a strong team next year. Coach Palmer and the entire track team should be commended on a job well done.

Practices were held twice a week by the sponsors Willa May Southard and Ruth Fees. These practices faced all the members of the team against each other. This extra time spent paid off for the Plainview I team — Patrick Kelley, David Splitter, Paul Splitter, Gwyn Woelk, and alternate Synda Rorex. This team captured the third place trophy at the Plainview Knowledge Bowl. The Plainview II team scholars Tom Scott, Randy Barnes, Barb Beaman, Julie Earl, and Mike Lening also did well.

Forensics

Sponsored by Willa Mae Southard, the speech team traveled to many meets. Paul Splitter placed first at the Woodlin meet in the category of poetry with the reading of "Prior to Miss Belle's Appearance." Angela Fuqua received a second place at Woodlin in drama for "The Last Rung on the Ladder." Mike Lening placed fifth at the Tribune Speech Meet in prose with the selection of "Drowned Man." Trina and Randy Barnes also did well at meets and presented speeches to classes.

A Winning Combination

Teachers Form The Backbone Of Education

The teachers and administration attended the Southeast Colorado BOCES Educational Conference in November. They updated the science and math curriculum. A highlight this year was the Christmas Concert directed by Mrs. Swartz. This year's first grade class was one of the largest classes Mrs. Reinert has had in several years. Mrs. Carney has enjoyed using of the computers. Having current events class competition was Mr. Reazin's way of keeping up on current affairs. The faculty enjoyed the King's Daughters Banquet.

Miss Beesley enjoyed teaching her first year at Plainview. Mrs. Tuttle supervised the preparation of the annual. Mr. Palmer taught shop. Miss DeCamp enjoyed being the role model for the sixth graders. Donald, Cora, JoNell and Skeeter drove the buses again this year. Skeeter made the activity bus lively again this year. Terry kept the buses running and Virgil kept the halls shining. Cora and Sharon fed all the hungry students.

Eighth Grade

During the year the eighth graders were busy at all times. Sports as well as doing their homework took up much of their time, although graduation was a very important event.

Girls Have Tough Season

Take Consolation Trophy

The Plainview Junior High girls had a very good season this year. The girls were a very young team but still showed a lot of poise. Two eighth graders, four seventh graders, and two sixth graders made up this year's team. The girls played in the Eads Tournament and brought home the consolation championship. Plainview finished the season with a 5-5 record. Losing only two people off the team makes next year look real promising.

Teacher Of The Year

Philip Spreitzer, Teacher of the Year, is an individual who most students seemed to find themselves challenged by his classes. Mr. Spreitzer's classes are very exciting, interesting and even though his classes are tough, they are alot of fun. His first reaction of Plainview was that it was very small and had no excitement. He felt it was going to be a big challenge. One thing for sure, his outlines for class will not be forgotten by all students for years to come.
