BILL WOELK

We, the Yearbook Staff, are dedicating the 1989 - 90 yearbook to Mr. Jake Diel and Mr. Bill Woelk for all their long service and dedication to Eads High School. Thank you!

KINDLY UNHITCH THAT STAR, BUDDY by Ogden Nash
 I hardly suppose I know anybody who wouldn't rather be a success than a failure,
 Just as I suppose every piece of crabgrass in the garden would much rather be an azalea,
 And in celestial circles all the run-of-the-mill angels would rather be archangels or at least cherubim and seraphim,
 And in the legal world all the little process-servers hope to grow up into great big bailiffim and sheriffim.
 Indeed, everybody wants to be a wow,
 But not everybody knows exactly how.
 Some people think they will eventually wear diamonds instead of rhinestones
 Only by everlastingly keeping their noses to their ghrine-stones,
 And other people think they will be able to put in more time at Palm Beach and the Ritz
 By not paying too much attention to attendance at the office but rather in being brilliant by starts and fits.

Some people after a full day's work sit up all night getting a college education by correspondence,
 While others seem to think they'll get just as far by devoting their evenings to the study of the difference in temperament between brunettance and blondance.
 In short, the world is filled with people trying to achieve success,
 And half of them think they'll get it by saying No and half of them
 by saying Yes,
 And if all the ones who say No said Yes, and vice versa, such is the fate of humanity that ninety-nine percent of them still wouldn't be any better off than they were before,
 Which perhaps is just as well because if everybody was a success
 nobody could be contemptuous of anybody else and everybody would start in all over again trying to be a bigger success than everybody else so they would have somebody to be contemptuous of and so on forevermore,
 Because when people start hitching their wagons to a star,
 That's the way they are.

SENIOR WILLS/ PROPHECIES

I, Neil Lane, will my ability to Lance L. not to walk when he gets the basketball. I will my ability to the students not to take any slack from the Eads Police Department.

I, Clint Bean, leave all my scribbled messy writing papers to Mr. Monter, who loves to read them more than anyone in school.

I, Jimmie Patterson, will to Brandon Briggs, my 3 point ability.

I, Amy Morgan, will to Brad M. my ability to stay out at least 1 hour late every night and not get in trouble. I will to Joanie Rehm, my ability to make it thru the Senior year. I will to Joanie Rehm my ability to run out of gas. I will to Angie Gallimore, my ability to respect upperclassmen.

I, Billy Koehler, will my height to Doug Weber.

I, Shelly Crawford, will my ability to all of the EHS athletes, to accept criticism and go on ... most of all enjoy it because it goes by fast.

I, Arron Hope, will my ability to walk and chew gum at the same time to Lawrence Mendoza.

I, Oscar Ridgeway, will to J.D. Johnson, may ability to drive. I will to Brad Hopkins my ability to know when to keep my mouth closed. I will to Tucky Lieble, my height.

I, Stacey Reystead, will to Meg K. and Steph G. my ability to withstand one more year of the very long trips to and from Haswell. I will to Amy B., Kristi L., Rachel, and Melissa, my ability to be on at least 2 state championship teams. I will a poster sized picture of myself to Brady Baxter for him to look at.

I, Sam Nelson, will my skills as follows: my hard work and great success of high school to Brad Hopkins and Doug Weber. My late nights and long, honest school days of studying to Shannon Christie. My great athletic ability to anyone who will take it. My ability to keep my mouth shut to Brad Hopkins and Lawrence Mendoza. My ability to not throw golf balls off cliffs to Shannon Christie. My good looks, charm, personality, and brains to Lawrence Mendoza. My ability to drive an old vehicle throughout my high school years to all of you who have junkers now. My ability not to wreck a vehicle to the great survivor, Paul Kelley. My ability to smile when there is a camera around to underclassmen.

I, Joani Weeks, will to Angie Gallimore, my ability to spell names right. To Joanie Rehm, my ability to jump the highway and not "EVEN" hurt the car.

We, the 4 Senior Girls of the 1989 - 90 basketball starting five, will our ability to next years team to not consume any alcohol, fight during games, use profane language, get technical fouls, or let the press control us during the season.

I, Brett Rusher, will to Joanie Rehm my ability to be hyper when I'm tired. I will to certain people of Eads my ability to tell a story without making it bigger each time I tell it.

I, Diane Crow, will my ability to whine and gripe to Jamie Salisbury. I will my wonderful attitude to anyone. I will my ability to leave tape alone to J.D. Johnson.

I, Mark Stephenson, will my ability to speak above a whisper to Danny Brown. To Paul Kelley, my ability to keep all vehicles I drive on the road. To the rest of you, nothing. I'm going to need it all for college.

THE WAY WE SEE THE CLASS OF 1990 IN TEN YEARS

Amy Morgan - Living in Texas, married to a rich rancher oil man. And not doing "one" thing.

Brett Rusher - Working on his own ranch called Poverty Acres, married and have three kids.

Joani Weeks - Working in a day care center and enjoying it!

Diane Crow - Still married to David and only have the one kid.

Stacey Reystead - Managing a clothing corporation and running all of their accounting statements.

Nikki Hopkins - Making lots of money in her own beauty salon.

Oscar Ridgeway - Working on his own ranch, married, no kids.

Shelly Crawford - Teaching fourth grade and working as a freelance photographer for Cosmopolitan.

Tom Swopes - Working in the Ag. field making lots of money.

Billy Koehler - Own his own business and be a millionaire.

Neil Lane - Making lots of money, be married and have a family.

Sean Wyatt - Will be "Married with Children".

Arron Hope - Will become a great philosopher. "What comes, will come."

Duff Liebl - Own a chain of health clubs and be rich and happy.

Sam Nelson - Married, living on my own ranch and somehow working for the government.

Chris Stowell - Vacationing in Hawaii and living in L.A. or New York.

Wanda Seibel - Working as a secretary for some big company.

Joe Wroblewski - Married with one kid and have an office job!

Jimmie Patterson - Will have his own ranch and be successful.

Clint Bean - Will be a big time rodeo star and try to make "Amarillo by Morning."

ACTIVITIES

EADS HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Scott L. and Mark S. - Outstanding Band Students

Eads High School Band consists of twelve high school members and eighteen junior high members. The EHS band performs several concerts a year as well as some football games and the Homecoming Parade.

Here, the band performs at half - time.

MUSIC AWARDS - Outstanding Band Member - Mark Stephenson, U.S. Marine Corps Sempre Fidelis Award - Scott Laney, Medals for Participation in Air Force Band Day - Scott Laney, Cindy Offill, and Joe Musgrave. Medals for Eads Concert Band's Superior Rating at Music Festival Robyn Brown, Brandi Weirich, Joe Musgrave, Becky Rittgers, Rachel Zimmerman, Dan Brown, Scott Laney, Heather Frederick, Kim Japhet and Chris Lindholm. The band has done an outstanding job of entertaining the community with the music they make. Their band director, Mr. Bob Seay, has helped make the music program at EHS a wonderful experience for all those involved.

CURTAIN CALL

BYE, BYE BIRDIE, is the story of Conrad Birdie enlisting in the Army. Because he does this, it stirs up a controversy amongst America's teenage girls. "We love you, Conrad. Oh yes we do!" This situation lends itself to some rather hilarious incidents that leave audiences rolling in the aisles. Those who participated in the spring musical were:

SCOTT LANEY
ROBYN BROWN
HEATHER FREDERICK
KIM JAPHET
CHRIS STOWELL

CINDY OFFILL
JOE MUSGRAVE
CHRIS LINDHOLM
BECKY RITTGERS

There were also numerous junior high students supporting the cast as well as their obsessive love for Conrad Birdie. The spring musical was a delight to watch. You all did a super job!

The girls go crazy for Conrad Birdie.

They take their bow in the spotlight!

Chris Stowell teaches America's youth in BYE, BYE BIRDIE.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETES

FEMALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR - DUFF LIEBL
MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR - SAM NELSON

The 89-90 Athletic Banquet began promptly at 6:00pm with a wonderful dinner catered by the Country Kitchen. It then proceeded with a film depicting special sports moments at EHS for the 1989 - 90 school year. These clips were set to music that depicted what kind of season our athletes had. "Hangin' Tough" was set to Volleyball while the Basketball rap song was set to Girl's Basketball. This also highlighted shots from the State Championship game played at the Air Force Academy when they won the State Class 1A title. Boy's Basketball was signified with the song, "Where the Down Boys Go". Baseball clips showed some outstanding slides, catches, and stolen bases. Football showed some spectacular tackles and touchdowns. The track team also had a marvelous year and showed us just how high Duff can really jump! The outstanding Athletes are as follows: Football - Billy Koehler, Volleyball - Shelly Crawford, Boy's Basketball - Neil Lane, Wrestling - Brett Rusher, Girl's Basketball - Shelly Crawford, Baseball - Billy Koehler, Boy's Track - Neil Lane, and Girl's Track - Duff Liebl. Female Athlete of the Year - Duff Liebl, and Male Athlete of the Year - Sam Nelson. Outstanding Pep Club Girl - Joani Weeks. Some new records were set this year with Volleyball: Most sets, Highest set %, most sets for kill were set by Shelly Crawford. Most spikes and most kill spikes were set by Stacey Reystead. High kill % and High passing score were set by Duff Liebl. For Girl's Basketball: Most points/year and High average game went to Stacey Reystead, and Most steals went to Shelly Crawford. Billy Koehler set the new Stolen bases record in Baseball with 21. New Track records set were: 100 meter and Triple Jump to Neil Lane, 200 Meter, High Jump to Duff Liebl, and the Triple Jump to Lindsey Baxter. It is apparent that teamwork means success and EHS athletes know that. It was appropriate at the end of the film to play Rod Stewart's song, "Forever Young". With these moments these athletes have shared, there will always be a place in their hearts where they can remain, "Forever Young."

Coaches Comments - Football

I feel the 1989 football season record should have been better. Although we lost seven starters from the 1988 team, I think we had more talent than we showed this year. Reflecting back on the season, the intensity and winning attitude seemed to be lacking. I hope that the team will look back and evaluate the season and that those who return for another season at EHS football will learn from the experience and come back better prepared. I also believe that seniors can use the experience in football to help determine what it will take to be successful in life.

Coach Gail Crawford

Congratulations on your season.

1989 HOMECOMING EVENTS

The 1989 Eagle Homecoming was set off by the theme, "Welcome to the Jungle". Eads High School students chose Amy Morgan as their Homecoming Queen and Billy Koehler as their Homecoming King. They were attended to the ceremonies on the Eads High football field by Senior Princesses, Stacey Reystead and Shelly Crawford, and Senior Princes, Tom Swopes and Neil Lane. Stephanie Gifford and J.D. Johnson (Juniors), Amber Liebl and Tyler Frazee, (Sophomores), Rachel Zimmerman and Bradley Morgan (Freshmen), were the underclassmen attendants. The crown bearers were Deirdre Davis and Michael Zimmerman.

Meg Kreutzer, Vice-President of StuCo, organized the Homecoming Parade. President, Stacey Reystead, worked with Senior committees for dress days, the pep rally, and the half-time ceremonies. She was assisted by StuCo officers Dan Brown and Brandi Weirich. Representatives Duff and Amber Liebl helped organize skit rallies and parent signs. The Student Council funded the Homecoming Dance Saturday evening with decorations by the Senior Class.

King, Billy Koehler, escorts Queen, Amy Morgan, off the field.

The Freshmen class received 1st place with their wildly decorated float. They also grasped the "Class with Class" title. These points were determined by participation in dress days, chants and cheers at the pep rally, skits and their floats. Some of the dress days that helped make the week exciting were: Twin Day, Crazy Day, Dress Up Day, and Get-Up-And-Go Day. Several awards were given for favorite outfits during the public pep rally in the Eads Gymnasium.

HOMECOMING VICTORIES ARE SOUGHT

On Tuesday, September 19, 1989, the volleyball team hosted the Crowley County Chargers. The Lady Eagles came out on top over the Chargers by a big margin. The ladies' parents were recognized before the match and were given flowers and badges. This was only the start for a very successful season.

Senior football player, Mark Stephenson, breaks through the Homecoming Hoop, especially made to lead the Eagles to a victory..

Billy Koehler catches a great pass to help the Eagles take the Homecoming win!

The Football cheerleaders backed the Eagles through a tough, eight game season. They performed a "Batman" routine, that they had learned at camp, at halftime of the close Homecoming competition. The cheerleaders led the crowd and the Pep Club in numerous 'spirited' cheers to lead their team to victory. The football players pulled off a 14 - 8 overtime victory over the Swink Lions. What a way to end Homecoming Week!!!!

COACH'S COMMENTS

This season was very enjoyable for me as I saw each wrestler improve from the beginning of the season. Each wrestler is the master of his own destiny in that he "gets back" from wrestling what he "puts into it" during the season and off season. I, and each of you, will have many good memories of this season and I thank you.

Coach Robert Woods

Brady and Tyler pose after winning the 400 relay.

The 1990 track season proved to be a very successful one. The girl's track club sent Duff Liebl to State in the high jump, long jump, and 400 meter relay; while Melissa Pearl and Cindy Offill also traveled to State as the other 2 legs of the relay. The boy's track club also had a prestigious season as it sent Neil Lane in the 100 meter dash, triple jump, and 400 meter relay. Sean Wyatt participated in the long jump at State and also in the 400 meter relay with Brady Baxter and Tyler Frazee.

Records set over this year were Duff Liebl in the 200 with a time of 27.79, Lindsey Baxter set a record in the triple jump with a jump of 33'2.25, Neil Lane set records in both triple jump 42'8.75 and the 100 meter dash with 10.38, the boy's 400 meter relay set the record with 45.83. Congratulations on a fine season.

WINTER SPORTS CHEERLEADERS

Melissa, Wendy and Wanda cheer for the football team.

Basketball cheerleaders: Jan Barlow, Robyn Brown, Cari Montoya in "Attitude" pose.

Nikki H. and Jan B. at a football game.

Wrestling Cheerleaders: Wanda Seibel and Wendy Fadness.

The Winter Sports Cheerleaders lead the Basketball and Wrestling teams on to Victory. The wrestling cheerleaders showed great spirit and pride in their wrestlers by buying them each an Eagle spirit towel. The Basketball cheerleaders never missed a varsity game and cheered the Lady Eagles on to State. Since Cheerleaders are athletes, the girls work very hard on their training to be the best they can be. We are proud of you.

The football Pep club kept busy all season, cheering on the E.H.S. football players. They followed the guys to every football game in that big yellow bus. They were blessed with excellent weather season-round. The cheerleaders were able to keep their Pep Club going by leading some new and fascinating chants and cheers. The longest road trip taken was to Byers when we played Dayspring Christian, losing by only a slight margin. But still, the Pep Club was recognized as a great group with a lot of enthusiasm. For such a large group, they were able to stay organized, and believe it or not, under control.

The Pep Club was also active in money making projects. They sold Christmas wrapping and posters and managed to make enough money to acquire some new things for the 90-91 football season. (Like megaphones!!) So, hold on to your hats next football season, Pep Club will blow you away!!!

Football cheerleaders and Pep Club members keep up the school spirit. They are a major factor in cheering their team to victory.
