SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Jim Specht, will my ability to write long answers to James next year, any answers for that matter, not to sexually harass people to Keri, my imperfect posture to Krystal and my grooming habits to Shannon.

I, Philip Butler, will my ability to add fuel to the fire and not get burnt to Jerud, to grab a sense of reality to the teachers, to have a girlfriend and always be guilty to Jason B., and to have a boyfriend who is still in H.S. to Krystal and Tressa.

I, Jodi Earl, will my ability to take a joke to Candis, to drive the speed limit to Gina, to know when to shut up to Christi, and to have school spirit to the Freshmen.

I, James Lopez, will my ability to walk slow to Mrs. Palmer, not to kiss up to anyone to Jodi and Christi, to have a smile after every basketball game to Brian, to check the coffee before drinking it to the teachers.

One day at a time--
 this is enough.
 Do not look back and
 grieve over the past,
 for it is gone;
 And do not be troubled
 about the future
 for it has not yet come.
 Live in the present,
 and make it so
 beautiful,
 That it will be worth remembering.

After a seven year absence, an old Hawk has flown home. Lori Shalberg, a 1986 Graduate of Plainview, was named head volleyball coach. Although the Hawks didn't perform as well as coach Shalberg wanted. She felt that much improvement over the course of the season. Being such a young team this year. The outlook for next years team is very promising.

The Hawks Find A Way

The 1993-94 Hawk football program went to Holly due to lack of interest at Plainview. There were four players from Plainview who were very enthusiastic about playing with the Holly Wildcats. The four players were Senior Philip Butler (13), Sophomore Brian Smith (53), and two Freshmen, Jason Butler (68), and Shannon Butler (71). The Wildcats played with heart and intensity.

The PHS spirit organizations were very active under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Fees. The enthusiastic cheerleading duo of Sarah and Krystal Specht, rallied behind the Hawks in all of their athletic endeavors. They organized pep rallies, hosted a sign-making pizza party, decorated the activity bus, assigned "Secret Pals", and held fund-raising cake raffles. The PHS Dance Team, comprised of Jodi Earl, Christi Scherler, and Robi McDaniel performed a variety of routines during the half-time show of home basketball games. Both organizations were PHS Proud!!

STUCO Enjoys The '93-94 School Year

During the school year, STUCO has taken part in many activities and events. At the beginning of the year, they were busy decorating for a back to school dance. During the months of December and January STUCO was active in their Christmas wall decorating contest, and planing Homecoming week.

Journalism Class Has An Active Year

The 1993-94 Journalism class was busy this year. With a total of twelve different students, the class met three deadlines. Along with the deadlines, the students also put out numerous school newspapers. The class has been enjoyable with the new first year teacher, Mr. Mark Scott.

↳ to Reminding something? Get to work girls. Seniors work hard. Lindsey and Angie work together. Jason and Gina. What's so funny? Smile Karl. Journalism Class. Christi meets her deadline. Our fearless leader! Robi looks busy. Lisa's confused. Mr. Sideburns. Class clown.

Lady Hawks Pull Together

The PHS Lady Hawks were enthused to have first year coach and former lady hawk basketball player Lori Shalberg at the helm. They were also glad to have former head coach Mark Scott returning to the team as Ms. Shalberg's assistant.

The Lady Hawks had a trying season, but never lacked the will to continue. Throughout the season, the ladies kept pushing themselves and improving their game. The young team knows that their hard work and dedication will one day be rewarded with the ultimate victory.

Not only did they mature athletically, but as individuals. Coach Shalberg stressed the importance of sportsmanship and fair play in every area of the girls lives, something that cannot be measured solely by a scoreboard.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS' BASKETBALL

This years basketball team only had a lack of experience. The desire to win and to play hard in every game was there. The team consisted of three Freshmen, four Sophomores, two Juniors, and two Seniors. The team enjoyed their first-year head coach Mark Scott and their assistant coach Lori Shalburg. It was a long, hard fought season for the Soaring Hawks. All the players had a good time throughout the season. Although it was a losing season, the players are already looking forward to next season. Philip Butler was voted All-Conference, and Jason Huddleston was voted All-Defense Team Honorable Mention.

From right to left: Philip lays it in for another basket. James schools the Tigers. Jason makes his second freethrow. Hey ref, Is that one clean? The '93-94 boys basketball team. Picture perfect form. Philip decided not to dunk it this time.

Aiming For The Gold

The 1994 PHS track team aimed for the gold. The team attended the league track meet in Burlington, the jackrabbit relays in Tribune, and the regional-qualifying meet at La Junta. Sprinters, throwers, and jumpers all earned their positions on the Hawk Squad. Team members included: Tressa Smith, Krystal Specht, Brandie Miller, Robi McDaniel, Sarah Specht, Candis Butler, Christi Scherler, Jason Butler, David Barnes, Frank Vasquez, Junior Vasquez, Brian Smith, Jason Huddleston, and Jerud Butler. The tracksters were coached by Miss Shalberg.

The Band Plays On!!

The Jr./Sr. High Band grew tremendously in the past year. They performed at the Christmas and spring concerts as well as the band festival in Lamar where they received a #2 ranking. The marching band had entries in the Holly Gateway Fair Parade, and the Lamar and Colorado Springs Parade of Lights Festivals. The pep band raised spirits at some of the home ball games. Plainview was proud to have such a talented and enthusiastic group of musicians!!

Booster Club Spreads Enthusiasm

The young and enthusiastic Plainview Booster Club did more than enough to contribute to Plainview Pride. Mostly recognized for their support of athletic endeavors, the booster club made enjoyable game programs as well as boasted a new school mascot that appeared at every home basketball game. The boosters made motivational signs, assembled athletic buttons for the parents, sponsored halftime shooting contests, and formed caravans to support the teams at away games.

To encourage the students academically, the booster club entered floats in local fairs which showcased the future of Plainview. They also donated the "People's Choice" trophies at the school's science fair. They hosted an after-prom party that offered high school students an evening of fun, games, and prizes. The boosters were very much appreciated by all Plainview students for their support and encouragement in the 1993-94 school year.

"I Only Have Fangs For You"

The Class of 1995 presented an old-fashioned melodrama "I Only Have Fangs for You." The setting for their play was a spooky haunted house referred to as the Rattrap Manor. Greta Belleneck, played by Gina Gifford, and her Aunt Chatterbit, played by Christi Scherler, became hotel entrepreneurs and decided to turn the old manor into the River Bend Hotel and Resort. However, Jason Huddleston, also known as Count Fritz Fangful and his faithful assistant, Igor, acted by Jim Specht, had different plans for the manor. Jerud Butler, casted as Able Abe the Plumber and Candis Butler, known as Lotta Payne, added to the suspense of the melodrama.

The 1993 Jr. High Volleyball team had a very good season which ended in a 4-5 record. The girls showed improvement in their volleyball skills as well as their attitudes throughout the season.

The Hawks are looking forward to the upcoming season which they plan to start with a positive attitude.

J.H. Football Team Wins

The Plainview J.H. football team had a very successful season this year as they had their first winning season in over 3 years. The Hawks were victorious 3 times, beating McClave, Weskan, and Kit Carson. The boys and girls played well but couldn't overcome Tribune, and Granada. 39

JH Girls Working Towards The Future

The Junior High girls basketball team worked very hard throughout the basketball season to improve their skills. Under Coach Lori Shalberg, the girls played every game with determination and desire. Their persistence will most definitely lead to a much brighter tomorrow!!

The JH Boys Basketball team had a winning season, finishing with a record of 6-2. The team was led by four experienced eighth-graders and Coached by Mark Scott. Plainview is very proud of their accomplishments and wishes them the best of luck next year!!

Spirited Cheerleading Trio Leads JH Pep Club

The spirited cheerleading trip of sixth graders Brandy Shalberg and Jayne Earl and eighth grader Laurie Butler rallied support for the junior high boys in their football and basketball contests. They also cheered on the high schools girls at their home basketball games. Demonstrating their tumbling and cheerleading skills, enthusiastic Brandy, Jayne, and Laurie contributed to an enjoyable night at the ball games. Everyone could clearly see that girls were PJH Proud!!

The PJH Pep Club was also very active in the 1993-94 School Year. Members of the group included eighth graders Jamie McDaniel (President) and Candy Crain, seventh graders Veronica Geist, Stacy Selby, Heather Swisher, Katie Williams (Secretary), and sixth graders Jessica Barnes and Stephanie McVicker (STUCO). The Pep Club held bake raffles to pay for the expense of the group shirts they sported at all of the games. The cheerleading and pep club sponsor was Mrs. Cheri Hopkins.

Eighth Grade Graduates!

The Class of 1998 graduated from eighth grade with enthusiasm and anticipation about their coming high school years. The spunky class is expected to contribute and generate high school spirit and pride. Congratulations and best of luck in the future, graduates!! The Class of 1998: Laurie Butler, Candace Crain, Larry Koeller, Stephen Lening, Elizabeth Lopez, Jamie McDaniel, Seth McVicker and Manuel Vazquez. Sponsor: Mrs. Barnett. 7th Grade Ushers: Katie Williams and Matthew Miller.

HALF SCORE AND FOUR YEARS AGO OUR EIGHT FATHERS AND EIGHT MOTHERS BROUGHT FORTH TO OUR SCHOOL A NEW GENERATION CONCEIVED IN THE ERA OF ROCK AND ROLL AND DEDICATED TO THE PROPOSITION THAT ALL STUDENTS ARE CREATED EQUAL.

NOW WE ARE ENGAGED IN A NEW ERA TESTING WHETHER OUR EDUCATION SO CONCEIVED AND SO DEDICATED CAN LONG ENDURE. WE ARE MET ON THE SCHOOL GROUNDS AND HAVE COME TO DEDICATE A PORTION OF THESE SCHOOL GROUNDS TO THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US AND TO PREPARE FOR THOSE WHO COME AFTER US. IT IS ALTOGETHER FITTING AND PROPER THAT WE SHOULD DO THIS.

WE THE CLASS OF 1998 HAVE JUST COMPLETED THREE YEARS OF PROGRESS FROM LOWLY SIXTH GRADERS TO BEING THE RULERS OF JUNIOR HIGH. WE MUST NOW MOVE INTO A NEW ERA WHERE AGAIN WE WILL CLAIM THE LOWEST STATUS, THAT OF FRESHMEN. OUR NEW JOURNEY WILL BE TO BECOME BETTER STUDENTS, BETTER ATHLETES, AND BETTER CITIZENS, THROUGHOUT OUR LONG LIFE.

NOW THAT WE SAY GOOD-BYE TO OUR JUNIOR HIGH YEARS WE WELCOME THE CHALLENGES THAT WE WILL FACE AS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Runnin' Like The Wind

The junior high tracksters ran like the wind throughout their active track season. The team attended meets in Tribune, Weskan, Holly, Granada, and Burlington. Both the boys and the girls consistently placed in the top ranks of all their track and field events. They're commended for a job well done.

Other page, Brandy runs. Chris runs the 100. Jamie runs in the relay. Why are you jumping Steve? Veronica finishes her race. The long jumper. Nice hand off. Stephan runs the 100 at Granada. Way to go Seth. The track studs. Brandy and Matt run their races.

Saluting Plainview's Athletes

A large crowd joined to salute Plainview's athletes at the 1994 Athletic Banquet. Coaches Lori Shalberg and Mark Scott organized the successful event which honored many student athletes. Some of the honors included letterman pins, all-conference awards, special team awards, and senior plaques. The booster club made a special presentation to Chad Tuttle for his dedication to Plainview for being the school mascot. Sarah Specht was chosen by Miss Fees for the "Miss Spirit" Award and Kami Stum was congratulated for raising the most money for the Easter Seals "Shoot-a-Thon." Entertainment was provided by the Sheridan Lake Livewires 4-H Club and Dennis Bruns of Lamar was the keynote speaker.

Honoring High-Achievers

Awards Night honored many of Plainview's achievers through recognition and scholarships. Some of the awards included Presidential Academic Fitness Award, honor roll, class awards, and National Honor Society. Perfect attendance certificates were given to J.D. Simms, Erica England, Jamie Carney, Josh Richardson, Larry Koeller, and Frank Vasquez. Next came the highlights of the evening. Jason Butler and Angie Crockett received Mr. and Miss PHS honors and Jodi Earl was the recipient of the Citizenship Award. Teacher-of-the-Year honors were given to Betsy Barnett and Lori Shalberg. Clovis and Lorene Uptergrove were recognized by the school board for their participation and support of Plainview School.

Elementary Memories

Musical Groups Showcase Their Talents

Mr. Seay, music director, was enthusiastic about the re-implementation of many music programs. The entire school took part in the classes, many concerts, and contests. Some of the high schoolers enrolled in the first-ever "music appreciation" course. Others joined the choir which sang at the Spring Concert and Choir Festival. The junior high students participated in choir and drama, as well as performing a Christmas play with the elementary students. The younger students learned about music rhythms and notes, they even demonstrated their xylophone "know-how" at the Spring Concert. They also played recorders and sang.

"Forever In Love"

On April 9, the junior class held the 1993-94 Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "Forever in Love." All of the seniors, juniors, and their dates attended the banquet. Jason Huddleston opened the banquet with the welcoming speech and toast. Jodi Earl Scherler gave the invocation. The meal for the night consisted of chicken fried steak, mashed potatoes, corn, and for dessert a four layered cake. While the dinner was being finished, Philip Butler read the class will; following him Jim Specht read the prophecy.

Kinders Celebrate America

The class of 2006 celebrated at their kindergarten graduation. Cassie Harris, Matea Mayo, Brandan Janitell and Casey Wolfe sang popular songs with help from their teachers and the community. The kinders informed everyone on their future plans.

Graduating 4 In '94!

The Plainview graduating class of 1994 included Philip Butler, Jodi Earl, James Lopez, and Jim Specht. Jodi Earl was named valedictorian and Jim Specht, salutatorian. The seniors chose Rhonda Lamle, their sixth grade teacher, to address them at their commencement program. Musical numbers were presented by the class and the choir students. Ushers were juniors Candis Butler and Jerud Butler. The senior class sponsor was Mrs. Janet Palmer. The class of 1994 will be greatly missed by their fellow students and community members. Best of luck in your bright tomorrows!
