Aren't they cute? The Freshmen say the homecoming poem to the seniors. Cheri tells her team what to do. Robi bumps the ball.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1996

* I, Cheri DeAnn Eck, will my muscular build and my ability to leave the house once in a while to Chris Eck; my car to anyone who wants to get stranded along the road with flat tires; my deep voice to Krystal Specht; my "Tribune Nights" to Laurie Butler and Candy Crain; my "bad habits" to David Crockett; a pair of jeans to Mikey Crain so he won't wear shorts when it's freezing out; a lobotomy and my ability to hold my own to Ethan Harkness; my height to Christy Hopkins; my crazy sense of humor to everyone who needs it; all my Farmer Bob clothes to Tressa Smith; for future times all the tests money can buy to Lindsey Tuttle; to all the juniors, I will the slots.

* I, Lindsey Renee Tuttle, will my ability to shower after a game to all the underclassmen; my ability to talk all the time to Hilary Dunn; my pointless stories to Laurie Butler; my ability to go out on weekends to Steve Lening; my ability to stay out all night to all those that have a curfew; my ability to miss school and not feel guilty to Larry Koeller; my ability to have more than one boyfriend and not let the other guys know to Brandie Miller; my ability to be wrong and my van to Krystal Specht; my attitude to Christy Hopkins; and for her college days, my ability to tell my friends that I will go out with them and actually do it to Angie Crockett.

* I, Angie Lea Crockett, will my ability not to ask so many questions in basketball practice to Laurie Butler, my up-beat personality to Candy Crain and Roni Geist, my ability to have fun and go somewhere without a curfew to all the underclassmen, my ability to be involved in all school activities to Liz Lopez, my ability to take a joke and come to school to Krystal Specht, my ability to show respect to the upperclassman to all the freshmen, my ability to get straight A's to Shannon Butler.

* I, Sarah Jo Specht, will my male-bashing comments to the J.H. girls in choir so that they may carry out my tradition; my ability to see one, or at least only two, guys at a time to Brandie Miller; my clothes that everyone borrowed and never returned, to those that have them—I'll just keep yours; my ability to not argue over every little thing and my not so annoying voice to Krystal Specht; my ability to do my homework or to at least think about it to Shannon Butler; my ability to tell a story how it really happened to Laurie Butler; my B-52 turbo charged, jacked up, big wheeled, infinity tricycle, fully, loaded with streamers, a horn and dual antennas to Shannon, David, and Kaleb; my ability to know when I've carried a joke out too far and to lay off at that point to Matt Miller, Steve Lening, Manny Vazquez, and, for his college days, Sean Lening; last but not least, I will all the good luck that brought to me my two best friends, Angie and Krystal, and my very handsome and understanding boyfriend, Steve, my way, to all the friendless, lonely underclassman. They will get out through the best and worst in high school.

* I, Robi Ann McDaniel, will my ability to be a senior and not have joined "The Club" to all the underclassmen; my ability to do things I'm not supposed to do and not get caught to my sister, Jamie; my ability to respect my elders to all those that don't fit in that category; my ability to get a "B-" in P.E. to all the jocks; my ability to get a 27 on the ACT's to all those people that need it; my Skecher shoes to Ethan Harkness so that we will be the same height; my accounting ability to Shannon Butler so that he can do it my himself; my car to Evan Hopkins so that his mom will let him drive to school; my ability to not get to a destination quickly to Seth McVicker; my ability to put off homework until the last minute and still get an "A" to Cheri Eck, for next year at college; my sensitivity to Evan Hopkins so that he'll be more compassionate; my ability to have survived Plainview School for 13 years to Christy Hopkins; my room to my brother; my ability to get spoiled to David Barnes and Shannon Butler; my ability to not fix my hair five days out of seven to Brandie Miller; and my ability to not look in a mirror every time I pass it to Brandy Shalberg.

* I, Sean Micheal Lening, will my ability to have a lazy left eye to Steve Lening; my office in the bathroom to Matt Miller; my ability to not have a headache everyday to Brandie Miller; my ability to become a trouble maker to last year of school to all underclassmen; my lifetime subscription of Hot Rod magazine to Shannon, David, and Kaleb; my ability to procrastinate on college applications and scholarships to all students under Mr. Shields; my ability to be able to take a joke and not get mad to Sarah, Krystal, Angie, and Brandie; my ability not to whine about the dress code every five minutes to Laurie Butler and Candy Crain; my ability to not have to be with a new person every weekend to those who need it; my ability to have every girls' boyfriend in the state of Colorado call and threaten to beat me up to Matt Miller and Steve Lening; last but not least, I will my presidency of the "Stall of Fame" to my brother, Steve Lening.

* I, Brian LeRoy Smith, will my ability to play football to Ethan Harkness; my ability to keep my car running to Kaleb Dunn; my hair to Steve Lening; my basketball skills to Larry Koeller; my ability to get a 15 on my ACT's to anyone who needs to be knocked off their high horse; and my ability to run to Evan Hopkins.

* I, Frank Vazquez, will my ability to head bang to Kaleb Dunn; my ability to go through the whole year without a flat tire to Brandie Miller; my running ability to Evan Hopkins so that he doesn't have to have a pinch runner in baseball; my car to Tressa Smith so that she doesn't have to walk to school; and my mumbling ability to Laurie Butler so the others won't be able to understand her "Uncle Bubbie" stories when she tells them.

* I, Junior Vazquez, will my ability to talk, chew gum, and jib all at the same time and my ability to drive a Ford pick-up without having it run out of gas before getting to the station to Kaleb Dunn; my ability to use the brakes before coming to a corner to Shannon Butler; my "John Deer" pick-up to Ethan Harkness; my knowledge of motors to Shannon, David, and Kaleb; my ability to use the right words to Tressa Smith; and my ability to run to my brothers, Manny and Robert.

* I, Ruth Fees, will my height to Mrs. Carney; my tattoo and black and white patent leather shoes to Mrs. Palmer; my organizational skills to Mr. Seay; my extensive movie library to Mr. Johnson; and finally, my sponsorship duties to any teacher who wants a challenge, needs no social life and likes spending 12-13 hours a day at school.

* The Senior class of 1996 would like to will everyone in high school our "Soap Opera" lives; our ability to hate each other one minute then love the next to the juniors; and finally our ability to be the best and most popular class at Plainview High School to any class that would like to challenge our reputation.

MEMORIES

CONCERT BAND

The JR/SR High Band is the largest it has been in recent years. They performed at the Christmas and Spring Concerts and marched in the Denver Stock Show Parade. They went to the Lamar Band Festival and received a #2 ranking. The Elementary Band also played in the Spring and Christmas Concerts.

HERE COME THE BRIDES

Jimmy Took and Billy Thompson are two young chaps. Jimmy's only relative is Uncle Dan who is very wealthy and very generous. Through a misunderstanding Uncle Dan gets the impression that Jimmy is married. Just as Jimmy finds himself in a position where he needs to borrow money, he receives a wire stating that Uncle Dan is arriving to meet the bride. Afraid that his uncle will think that he deliberately lied to him, Jimmy frantically tries to talk his girlfriend into posing as his wife for a few hours. Madge refuses, so Jimmy attempts to hire Mr. Oswald to pose as a woman! Mr. Oswald also refuses, leaving only Bill. Not willing, Bill gets dressed up as a girl!
