Homecoming

The 1997 Homecoming game was held on September 26 against Miami-Yoder. Homecoming King and Queen were Steve Lening and Jamie McDaniel. Spirit days for the week were as follows: Monday, Hat day; Tuesday, Homey day; Wednesday, Baby/PJ day; Thursday, 60's day; Friday, Blue and White day. The elementary, junior high, and high school all enjoyed the same activities at the end of every day. The Senior class was rewarded "the most spirited" class after the community pep rally on Wednesday night. The exciting week ended with the dance on Saturday the 27th and Dustin Meyers as the DeeJay.

High School Girl's Basketball

This year's Lady Hawk's Basketball season was really fun and exciting. Although the 1-3 start at the Springfield Tournament was a rough beginning, we were able to rebound with some memorable performances. The most exciting game was the contest at Eads, where we won by two points on a last-second three-pointer. Everyone pulled together and played a good game, showing that hard work and a determined effort is the key to success.

Top pictures feature the Lady Hawks playing in the district tournament against Eads.
