Mr. Glenn Smith

Mrs. Betsy Barnett

The 2007-2008 was a year of challenges and triumphs. It was inspiring for me to see the student body come together and uplift each other in rough times, and celebrate together during the good times. This was a very successful year and I am proud of the many accomplishments our students enjoyed in academics, athletics, and extra-curricular events. I am ready for this year to come to an end, but excited that in a short while we will start another year which I anticipate will also be very successful. I would like to thank the many supporters of Kiowa County School Dist. RE-1, as without them many of our successes would not happen. I would also like to wish our graduating seniors the best of luck in any life endeavors they pursue.

2008 Seniors

Erica,
It took a lot of work,
Time, and persistence, too,

You took your first step toward success,
And everyone's so proud of you!

I will the freshman to be the center of almost all gossip.

I will to Jojo not have anything go wrong with the next vehicle she owns.

I will to Jamee Kliesen and Cory Adamson to keep the late night, all-in-black sneak attacks alive, especially to those who least expect it.

I will to Jamee Kliesen to keep rolling mode deep in your H3, and to bring my shovels and rakes back to my house sometime soon!

I will to the rest of Eads High to stay positive and to enjoy every minute of these four short years.

Kenan Gooden

Most Likely to be late to his own funeral

I will to all students that hard work has never killed anybody...but are you willing to take that chance?

Talli Hansen

Most Likely to play professional Basketball.

I Talli, will to the underclassmen athletes, don't complain about what you have to do, it's for your own good

I will to Kailey, don't let upperclassmen tell you to play down. Play you hardest at all times.

I will to Chelsea Crosby and Tanaia Hansen to always be yourself and enjoy life, never let anyone tell you that you're not good enough. If you think you are, you are. And if anyone is talking crap about you, just laugh and say "Thanks."

Jacob Kraft

Most Likely to be a producer and director of a dirty movie (the next yourself Jeremy).

I will to everyone to not let anyone tell you what to do and always be your own person.

I will to Kailey Lane to not let anyone stand in the way of a relationship or anything! They cannot control you or how your feelings are. So go for what your heart wants and not what the people around you say.

I will to Matthew Ritzgers to always say how you feel and sometimes it might hurt you or others around you, but stay strong through things because there are a lot of people here for you even when you are in doubt of it.

I will to the PTA to have judging how to always go to class and do the best that you can possibly do.

I will to everybody to have a good time, and cruise Adams Street every weekend.

I will to everyone in the high school to have something about the bus before you preach about it because it takes out of 40, you're wrong.

I will to everybody to follow your heart, and to not let people intimidate you. Do what YOU want and what makes YOU happy, even if someone else doesn't like it. IT'S YOUR LIFE...I AM NOT!

I will to everyone to be yourself. I seriously don't like you for who you are, but I'll not work your first sympathy.

"Starting out our 2007 football season, we struggled to fill all six spots strongly. As the year progressed we became stronger every practice. Even though some of us didn't see much game time, we still had a lot of fun."

Drew Koch
Senior

"After losing our first two games, a forfeit to Arickeree and losing to Otis, the teams around seemed to lose respect for us. It was then that we started to really work hard every day at practice. The whole team to seemed to step up. After going 0-8 our freshman year, winning the Championship was a huge accomplishment as a senior. It's something I will remember the rest of my life."

AJ Bolin

Senior Reflections

"I feel that this year was an awesome year. I personally had alot more fun this year than in years past. I also would like to thank the coaches and girls for making my senior year of volleyball so much fun. I enjoyed every minute of practice and the games were a blast!!! Thank you for the great experience!!! Good luck next year!

You can go far!!!"

Talli Hansen

Senior

"So this year in volleyball ha been a wonderful year. I loved being able to play with all of the girls for on last time. I enjoyed playing with every one of them and winning lots of games. I hope for the best of them next year and me and zoie will be coming to all of their games and state to watch them kick some booty. Love ya all and thanks for making it fun Randel."

Erica Arnold

Senior

"This year we had all of our returning players with some nice addition that came in. We had some good things happen to us as a team. The girls found what it felt like to play as a unit and not as individuals, most of the season. We accomplished a winning season coming into districts one seat higher than last year and we made it one step farther in districts. We had some girls breaking school records once again this season. The downfall this season, is having such success coming into the ending of the season on not being able to get the job done. Our team has to get the attitude that they will not lose to anyone for any reason. We have to get rid of excuses and just get the job done. I truly enjoyed the girls this season and can't wait for next years season."

Coach Janelle Randel

Coach Janelle Randel

Coach Stephanie Boyd

"This season began with the possibility of Greatness and I don't think I have ever looked forward to a season or working with a group of girls more. We hadn't lost anyone from the previous season so our skills and potential were where they needed to be; we just couldn't figure out how to get the job done in crunch time and under pressure. A lot of people view this season as a failure because we never beat anyone we shouldn't have and we didn't go anywhere in post season, but I disagree, because with these disappointments, great players and teams evolve. Every player grew as an individual, the team grew positively together, Coach and I grew, we had a winning record, made it one step farther than the previous season, broke some records, and we've got a great group returning next year that wants to win. Do I feel like we failed in some areas? You bet; we didn't meet our expectations of ourselves and we didn't meet our potential, both frustrating, but lasting lessons. I don't think any of us will forget the feelings associated with a frustrating loss or disappointing end to the season, but we know what a strong unit feels like, what good volleyball is, and the effort needed to get the job done; we just need to mentally Refuse to Lose. I'm looking forward to next season and the returning girls; I'll dearly miss our Seniors and am looking forward to great things from them in their bright futures. Our goals and Greatness still await!"
